TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE JOHN DRAKE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

DETAILS OF SCHOLARSHIP

1. The Scholarship shall be known as a John Drake Memorial Scholarship.
2. The number of Scholarships to be offered shall vary from year to year.
3. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand.
4. Each John Drake Memorial Scholarship 2011 will have a maximum value of $5,000 each and be tenable initially for one year with a maximum tenure of three years. The Scholarship will be credited in two payments directly towards tuition fees to Auckland University during August and December (for A and B Semester papers respectively) of the year in the student is awarded the Scholarship.
5. To receive the fees credit for the Scholarship students are required to pass all papers in the semester which the fees credit is to cover. In special circumstances, students who do not achieve the required academic standard may appeal to the Selection Panel for special consideration.
6. Extension of the tenure of the Scholarships is dependent on satisfactory academic progress and sporting achievement as determined by the Trustees of the John Drake Memorial Scholarship fund. Recipients of the Scholarships do not need to re-apply in order to be eligible for an extension of the tenure of the Scholarships but will be automatically considered for re-awarding, for the second and third years of their tuition.
7. The offer of the Scholarship is subject to the candidate fulfilling all requirements for admission to the University of Auckland and enrolling in a full-time programme of study in the year of tenure.
8. The Scholarship shall be administered by the John Drake Memorial Scholarship Fund through the University of Auckland.
9. The initial selection criteria will be based on academic merit, sporting potential and involvement in community and club activities.
10. The Selection Panel will comprise of trustees of the John Drake Memorial Scholarship Fund.
11. The Selection Panel reserves the right to permanently or temporarily withhold payments of the Scholarship at any time should academic or rugby performance not be satisfactory.
